Perashat Noach

| | | |
|-----------|-------------------|-----------|
| Perasha: | Genesis 6:9-11:32 | (Page 26) |
| Haftarah: | Isaiah 54:1-54:8 | (Page 41) |

Noah, a righteous man, is introduced in contrast to a generation that "has perverted its ways." G-d instructs him to build and outfit the Ark. Noah is told to enter the Ark along with pairs of all the animals. For 40 days and nights the waters increased, destroying all living things. When the rain finally ceased and the Ark "landed" on dry land, Noah sends out the raven. When the raven returns unsuccessful from his mission, Noah sends out a dove that discovers dry land. G-d promises never again to destroy the world and designates the rainbow as the symbol of that covenant. The Perasha ends with the story of the Tower of Babel.

This Shabbat we read Chapter 54 in Isaiah which describes Israel, in the aftermath of the destruction of the Beit Hamikdash, as afflicted, barren, and inconsolable. The prophet assures the people that G-d's kindness and love for them is ever present, protecting, and sustaining. This week's Haftarah is a good match for our Perasha since it refers to the destruction of Jerusalem as "...this is like the waters of Noah..." The prophet then concludes with the reassurance that G-d remembers His covenant with the world and the Chosen People.
